

SNOWMOBILER'S CODE OF ETHICS

A snowmobiler will...

1. Be a good sports enthusiast and recognize that people judge all snowmobilers by your actions. A snowmobiler will use their influence with other riders and owners to promote fair conduct.
2. Not litter trails or trailheads. Nor will they pollute streams or lakes by their actions.
3. Not damage living trees, shrubs, or other natural features. They will go only where there is sufficient snow cover so as to not damage the land.
4. Will respect public and private landowners' property and rights.
5. Will lend a helping hand when they see someone in distress.
6. Will make themselves and their vehicle available to assist search and rescue efforts.
7. Will not interfere with or harass other trail users, other snowmobilers or other winter sports enthusiasts. They will respect the rights of other trail users to enjoy the winter recreational opportunities.
8. Will know and obey all federal, state, provincial, and local rules regulating the use of snowmobiles.
9. Will not harass wildlife and will avoid areas posted for the protection or feeding of wildlife.
10. Will stay on marked trails when operating in areas where snowmobile use is restricted to trails. Will obey all traffic laws when operating upon plowed roadways designated As open to snowmobiling.
